Give Dilger a home

Create a home for nature and for Mike Dilger, and you could win a day out with the man himself!

Create, colour and cut-out Mike before giving him a home in an outdoor space! Maybe you think he would be best in a bug hotel? Or perhaps he prefers a pond? Or perhaps he might be a little peckish and looking for some food in a butterfly café? Wherever it is, take a picture of Mike in his new home and send it our way – the only limit is your imagination!

Give Dilger some clothes

Colour in Mike's clothes so he looks the bees-knees for his new home! Use pens, pencil, paint or collage and let your creativity run wild!

How to enter

Email a picture of Mike Dilger in his home for nature to competitions@rspb.org.uk with the subject line "Day Out with Dilger" and include your name, age and address. For inspiration on building homes for nature, visit rspb.org.uk/givingnatureahome and rspb.org.uk/wildchallenge. Go to rspb.org.uk/dayoutwithdilger for full terms and conditions.
