Hilltop trail

Drink in some of Orkney's most spectacular views on this 3 mile (4.7 km) route, which is surrounded in spring and summer by the music of bubbling curlews, drumming snipe and calling cuckoos.

Knitchen Hill commands a view over almost all the islands of Orkney; looking north on a clear day you may even glimpse Fair Isle. Blotchnie Fiold offers breathtaking scenery to the west, including two of Rousay's other lochans, Peerie Water and Muckle Water.
